

Amy Bowman is the wife of Dan Bowman. They have three children, Cullen, Ben Addison, and Eryn Claire. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education, Grades K-8th grade. She has taught one year in public school, ten years at Carroll Academy and has taught for the past seven years at Winona Christian School.

Ms. Bowman states: "I find it a privilege to be able to teach at Winona Christian School. I have the opportunity to teach not only reading, writing, arithmetic, language, phonics, spelling, social studies, science, and health but most importantly I have the opportunity to teach little ones about God our Savior. I believe it is our duty as Christian teachers to instill these morals and values in all children."
